

DURBANVILLE HERITAGE SOCIETY / DURBANVILLE ERFENISVERENIGING

Invites you to join us for a talk on
A HISTORY OF SCANDALOUS BEHAVIOUR AT THE CAPE

Date: Saturday 28 October

Time: 14:30

Venue: Durbieland Hall, Weyers Avenue

Presented by June McKinnon

June McKinnon has a Master's degree in History.

Her dissertation was on The Start of Feminism in the Cape Colony.

She has published three books:

- A Tapestry of Lives: Cape

Women of the 17th Century. Published in 2004.

- Wine, Women & Good Hope: A history of scandalous behavior in the Cape. Published in 2015.

- Criminals, Corruption and Crazy Critters. Published in 2019.

June has also published articles in several journals such as the Journal of the Historical Society of Cape Town; Capensis - Journal of the Genealogical Society of the Western Cape, to name a few.

Her talk will focus on the book, Wine, Women & Good Hope.

